24 Hour Report

Democrats for Conservative Govt.
8373 Jefferson
Groves, TX 77619

Federal Election Commission
999 E Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20463

Attached is the "24 Hour Report" for independent expenditures made by the nonconnected PAC "DEMOCRATS FOR CONSERVATIVE GOVT.", FEC No. C00296319. The PAC is registered as a multiple candidate committee, but has not yet satisfied all the requirements of such a committee. A copy of the report is also being filed with the Clerk of the House of Representatives as well as the Texas Ethics Commission.

Please note that as I discussed over the telephone with the report analysis division of the FEC this a.m., I inadvertently failed to file this report within the 24 hours specified. The failure was neither willful nor intentional and a detailed explanation is provided in the attached memorandum.

Thanks,

Carl E. Cupit, Treasurer

MEMORANDUM--December 5, 1994

Re.: Inadvertent failure to file a notice of independent expenditures within 24 hours:

The following describes my reasons for failing to file the 24 hour notice for independent expenditures.

Being a novice in the political arena, I have made a very conscientious effort to satisfy the regulations regarding a nonconnected pac and have read through the FEC's Campaign Guide for Nonconnected Committees several times since receiving it in July. I have further made an effort to go through the Federal Register to get copies of the FEC regulations as well as promulgated regulations pertaining to the political process as part of my effort to gain an accurate understanding of the regulations. When I got into the period of time the FEC requires 24 hour notices for independent expenditures exceeding $1000, I thought I had remembered reading that 24 hour reports were required. I did something less than a detailed review of the Guidelines to ascertain what was required. I did not find a reference to a 24 hour report in my cursory review of the Guidelines but still had a question as to the details of such a report and whether such a report was required or not. I remembered that the FEC publishes a list of the required reports on their General Election Report Notices sent out periodically. I then looked through the report requirements listed in Roman Numerals I, II, and III of the Report Notice dated October 3, 1994, including the asterisked footnotes, and did not see any reference to a 24 hour report requirement. I decided that if such a report was required it would surely have been listed with those report requirements and I concluded therefore that I had apparently misread the requirements for a 24 hour report and did not pursue it further.

On December 3rd while finalizing the Post-General Election Report, I was again looking at the October 3rd Notice with the intent of making a personal note to myself on the back of that Notice. That is when I saw the note pertaining to last-minute independent expenditures, 24 hour report requirements. I realized that what I thought I had read earlier about 24 hour, last-minute independent expenditure reports was true and that I had failed to file such a report. I then did a detailed review of the "Campaign Guide for Nonconnected Committees" and found the reference to the 24 hour report requirement on page 17.

As I discussed with a representative of the FEC Report Analysis Division this morning over the telephone, I realize that I failed to submit the 24 hour report as I should have but the failure to do so was not willful and intentional nor was it done without some effort on my part at the time to ascertain what the actual requirements were (as I have tried to explain above). As the FEC representative and I discussed, I have detailed why I missed filing the 24 hour report in this Memorandum and am now filing the report as he suggested.

I also have a suggestion that I am offering to the Information Division of the FEC in an effort to minimize or prevent this from happening to others. The suggestion has to do with including a notice of the 24 and 48 hour reports along with the other required reports whenever the FEC sends out Report Notices. I have attached a copy for reference.
